YOUNGSTOWN. — Rev. J. H. Tross, pastor of Avery Zion A. M. E. church of Pittsburgh, and Rt. Rev. W. J. Walls, presiding bishop of the eighth episcopal district, were the speakers at the Sunday morning and evening services at Oak Hill Ave. A. M. E. church. Large crowds heard them. The bishop, who visited the Ohio Annual Conference of his Church, was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Maxwell. Rev. B. M. Henningham, pastor of Mahoning Ave. Zion A. M. E. church for two years, was reappointed for another year by the presiding bishop, Rt. Rev. Geo. C. Clements. The announcement of the re-appointment was greeted with much applause. — Bertha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Smith, and Rev. A. A. Perry of Providence, R. I., were married at the bride's parents', Monday evening. Bishop Walls officiated, assisted by Rev. Henningham, the bride's pastor. The happy couple received many beautiful and useful presents.

A LETTER OF APPRECIATION AND ACHIEVEMENT.

Through the help of God and the untiring efforts of the many members and friends, Tried Stone Out-Door Relief Society, Inc., was able to complete the down payment of $2,000, June 2, 1930, which was required on the W. N. Ford property which is to be used as a home and farm for the deserving members of the above mentioned society. This farm is situated on Clague road in the village of North Olmstead, Cuyahoga County, O., Stop 19 on the Lorain car-line. Get off and walk toward the lake. We wish to thank each and every individual who gave directly to this cause or was instrumental in any way in helping to raise any amount of money, whether large or small, through sermons, entertainments, plays or by soliciting money by means of Gleaners. We especially wish to thank Rev. George Jenkins, the blind evangelist, for the earnest effort put forth during the ten-day financial drive; we were able to realize over $300. Through the kindness and influence of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Withers, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Lewis, Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Yewell, Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. George Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Minor Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barge, Mr. John Henry, Mr. Alanzo Nalls, Slaughter Bros., funeral directors; J. W. Wills, Sr., Alvin C. Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Martin, Mrs. Hattie Rogers, Mrs. Matilda Benning, Mrs. Cora Laster, Mr. and Mrs. John Hammond, the Hon. Harry C. Smith, Mrs. Annie Coleman, Rev. Ben White and Mr. Sylvester Williams we were able to secure the amount of $1,116 for immediate use. The following is a list of names of persons making donations to the Farm Fund, beginning Oct. 8, 1929. By request, some names have been omitted; others, because we were unable to read the names, and in some cases the amount was omitted:

SIMPSON-ALLEN

Controversy Heard By An Assistant Police Prosecutor—Greatly Perturbed!

Friday, June 13, Miss Wilhelmina Allen, who had been employed in Lakewood but was stopping at the P. W. A., received an official notice from Malvern E. Schultz, "assistant law director in charge of the criminal branch of the municipal court of Cleveland," to appear at his office, Central police station, Payne Ave. and E. 21st St., city, to see Assistant Police Prosecutor Roger N. Dillard on June 16 at 10 A. M. to answer to a complaint which it seems was filed by Gordon H. Simpson, his wife, or both, thru their attorney, Wm. R. Green. All were there at the time specified. Just as Dillard was opening the hearing, Miss Allen says he was called from the room by a man who told Dillard he was "wanted in the court room." Dillard left, saying he would "call O'Neil in" who presided at the hearing. An interview with Miss Allen resulted in the following information: She claims that Simpson kept company with her from about the middle of September, last year, until about the middle of March, this year, when she learned that he was a married man. From that time on, until last week Monday, Miss Allen says there was considerable contention, between Simpson, his wife and her, during which several conferences were held by them, and one conference with Atty. Wm. R. Green in his office. Present at this conference, in addition to Miss Allen and Green, were Simpson and Eugene Cheeks who accompanied her, Miss Allen says. At this conference, Miss Allen claims Green told her that he wanted to make a "monetary" settlement with her. To this, Miss Allen claims she replied that money could not pay for what she had suffered at their hands, meaning Simpson and his wife. All the foregoing and more The Gazette was familiar with, the first of last week, but decided to pay no attention to it. This was the case until the receipt of the following letter which makes the foregoing explanation necessary. It was handed to the editor by Mr. John Riehl, proprietor of The Riehl Printing Co. (which prints The Gazette), last week Thursday morning as "The Old Reliable" Gazette was going to press, too late for its publication in our issue of that week:

The Letter.

2288 E. 89th St., Apt. 2,
Cleveland, O., June 16, '30.
Riehl Printing Co.,
Courtland Bldg., 6 & St. Clair, City.
Attention: Mr. Riehl.

Dear Sir:—Information has come to me that the Hon. Harry C. Smith, editor of The Gazette, is about to print something derogatory to me.

This letter is to say that whatever he may say is absolutely false and untrue and that I expect to hold you and your company responsible for the slanderous article which may appear in the paper.

Yours truly,
(Signed) Gordon H. Simpson.

The editor of The Gazette does not recall ever having met Gordon H. Simpson, and therefore does not know him. It might, however, be interesting to know just what the "something degoratory" (to him) is that even the thot of the publication of it so greatly perturbed him as to cause him to send, or have sent, such a letter as the foregoing to The Riehl Printing Co. instead of sending it to the editor and owner of The Gazette. It would have been ever so much better for Simpson to have called at The Gazette office where all persons are treated courteously and kindly who conduct themselves properly.

Harry C. Smith,
Editor, The Gazette.

DOINGS OF THE RACE.

Richmond and Lynchburg, Va., are now about the only cities in the country that impose white principals on "Negro" schools.

Dr. Geo. C. Hall of Chicago died, last week Tuesday. He had been ill for some time. Dr. Hall was born in Michigan in 1864, and was surgeon-in-chief and trustee of Provident Hospital, Chicago.

Paul Robeson plans to live long in Germany where Reinhardt, his manager, has promised him that he may alternate drama with his concert form. Paul will study under the masters of the German stage as well as those of German singing. His success in England in the part of "Othello" is tremendous.

Henry Ossawa Tanner, age 71, born in Pittsburgh, educated at the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts and by Jean Paul Laurens and Benjamin Constant in Paris, reared in Philadelphia, son of Bishop Tanner (deceased), has resided in Paris, France, for many years and is the best-known and most famous American artist, specializing in religious paintings, which have been exhibited thruout Europe and America.

WHAT'S DOING!

Bundy.

The ROUNDER

George

HEAR! HEAR!!

So, Candidate J. Walter Wills, Sr., is bucking "Maschke and the Republican organization." Well, well, well! Fine chance he has of being elected a member of the State Senate and, too, before ever serving a day in the Ohio House of Representatives. Rich, isn't it?

Rev. D. O. Walker of St. James' A .M. E. church introduced a Democratic candidate for sheriff, John Sulzmann, to St. James Forum, Sunday afternoon, as a special speaker. Sulzmann, when councilman, voted to name "Blossom" Hill at the Boys' farm at Hudson in honor of Color-line Welfare Director Dudley S. Blossom. That ought to settle his candidacy for sheriff with our people of this community.

"The Blossom Triplets" were among the eighteen councilmen who accompanied their good friend (?) Color-Line Welfare Director Dudley S. Blossom to the Boys' Farm at Hudson, O., Sunday, to witness the dedication of Cooley hall, the newest building there. No, they did not take any part in the exercises, according to the account in Monday's Plain Dealer. Was a color-line drawn on them by the Safety Director, like the one he drew on our boys and girls who wished to train at the City Hospital during the last five years?

Councilman George's campaign manager in the last election, Luffbore L. Yancey, was finally given a position, last week, as senior cashier in the city treasurer's office. Clarence Shaw, campaign manager for Councilman Bundy, has not as yet been given a job, although Harvey Atkins, Councilman Payne's campaign manager, has a clerkship in the city clerk's office. Yancey was not selected for any political consideration, City Treasurer Russell V. Johnson said, but because he was the best qualified of a large number of applicants. Yancey is a graduate of Haines Industrial Institute of Augusta, Ga., and of Lincoln University of Chester, Pa. He lives at 2127 E. 83d St. Bundy is "out of luck."

A member of the "Colored Republican League of Cuyahoga County" informs "The Rounder" that its president, Councilman Bundy, induced the organization to put J. Walter Wills, Sr., and Mrs. Louise J. Pridgeon in the field as candidates for the state legislature. Wills for the senate and Atty. Pridgeon for the house. He promised to secure the endorsement of the Republican organization for them, and when he failed in this he urged them to enter the race for the purpose of "bucking Maschke and the organization," so our informant says. Wills "bit," but Mrs. Pridgeon very sensibly "ducked" after a conference with Mr. Maschke. The same informant says that Bundy had the tentative promise of the other two "Blossom Triplets" (Councilmen Payne and George) to stay away from the conference Mr. Maschke called, last Sunday morning week, on the Herman Kohen matter, but that George "got cold feet" and very properly decided to go. This made it necessary for the other two "triplets", Bundy and Payne, to "trail along" and attend the Maschke conference. So you see Bundy was still "bucking" Maschke and the organization, and getting no where, as usual. What was that Barnum said, many years ago, about "one being born every minute?" Mose Dixon says he is a candidate for the legislature "on his own." We, too, agree with Mose. No Bundy for him.

That "Blossom Triplet," Councilman Larry Payne, officially opened his fight on the Flemings (Lethia and Tom) for the leadership of Ward 11, in a meeting, Thursday evening, at 4117 Central Ave. The other two "triplets", Councilmen George and Bundy; Senator Geo. H. Bender and Rev. C. H. Crable, pastor of Mt. Haven Baptist church, were announced as the speakers of the evening, in addition to Payne who was expected to make the "keynote" speech, "the effort of his life," but failed dismally to impress to any extent. The meeting fell far short of measuring up to former Councilman Thomas W. Fleming's 11th ward Republican organization demonsration in the Western Reserve Republican club rooms on last week Friday evening. The speakers on that occasion were Atty. Alex. Bernstein, Wm. F. Erick, candidate for sheriff; Mrs. Lethia C. Fleming, Hon. Perry B. Jackson, Attys. Louis B. Drucker, A. H. Martin, and "Col." Sidney B. Thompson. Fleming presided. During the course of her remarks Mrs. Fleming, whom Payne hopes to defeat for Republican leader of ward 11, charged her political foes with bad faith and an attempt to end "the Fleming influence in ward 11", in that they had failed to carry out their part of a bargain, made last fall when she agreed not to run as candidate for the City Council to succeed her husband, thus clearing the "runway" for the virtually uncontested election of Payne. "They talk about exterminating the Fleming influence, but they can't do it," Mrs. Fleming said. "If they kill us politically (and there is no danger of their doing that), we will still be living in some other field." She told her candidates for committeeman that they were "the organization candidates", and said Payne had not and never would obtain as many jobs for our people as "the Fleming influence" had.

"They talk about getting positions, but without braggadocio I can say that Mr. Fleming could match them position for position, and what is more, there is a vast difference between positions and jobs, and Mr. Fleming on that score could match all three of them ("The Blossom Triplets", Councilmen Payne, Bundy and George)."

The meeting was largely attended and very enthusiastic, all of which does not augur well for the future of "The Blossom Triplets".

Political colleagues of the three colored legislators ("The Blossom Triplets") professed to be mystified over the consideration that led the trio to threaten to "hold out" on Maschke. — The Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Another interesting angle is that Fleming (and Maschke) is backing Harris, while Councilman Bundy, who is aiding Councilman Payne in a fight to overthrow Fleming as ward leader, is backing Arthur H. Day, the opposing candidate.—The Cleveland News.

Isn't This Rich?

In indorsing Arthur H. Day for the Republican nomination for county prosecutor, despite the fact that Maurice Maschke, party leader, opposes Day's candidacy and is backing George B. Harris, the Seventeenth Ward Republican club "has no disposition to defy Maschke," Councilman Leroy N. Bundy, the ward leader, explained last night. He said the Seventeenth was not bolting from Maschke or revolting against the organization, but merely expressing a preference.—The Plain Dealer. How excruciatingly funny!

Another angle in the situation is that this is not the first time that Bundy and his followers have declined to follow the dictates of Maschke. Bundy and his political allies in council temporarily blocked election of Councilman Herman E. Kohen, last Saturday. (Then they "took to the woods".)

No Danger of This!

Added significance in the club's action is the fact that the colored voters play a large part in determining the Republican party's ticket in a primary. If all the colored organizations refuse to follow Maschke and support Day instead of Harris,

SATURDAY, JUNE 28, 1930.

President Hoover's "prosperity," which like the "Coolidge good times," has failed to materialize; his position on the Veteran's bill, his Judge John J. Parker U. S. Supreme Court appointment which failed, and the unpopular Smoot-Hawley tariff bill which he signed and made a law, are not going to help his candidacy for a second term in the White House, two years hence, and are not going to help the Republican party in the elections, this fall, in the various states of the country. This sure does not look like a Republican year.

The City Manager Plan has been defeated twice in St. Paul, Minn., we are pleased to announce, once last November, and again June 16 of this year. The editor of The Gazette derives considerable satisfaction from these St. Paul results because early last year he was asked by the executive secretary of the leading civic organization of that city to express his views on the City Manager Plan. The editor's article, feminst the plan, was promptly relayed to City Manager Wm. R. Hopkins of this city, who as promptly wrote the editor expressing his great surprise and disappointment.

AN APPRECIATION.

If there is any one thing all of our people of this community—not only Garret A. Morgan, his family and friends—thoroly appreciate, it is City Law Director Harold H. Burton's decision of Tuesday to not appeal to the Ohio Supreme court the decision of the Appellate court, granting Garret A. Morgan a mandamus directing the city finance-director to pay him the $2,000 voted him by the City Council and withheld for many months. Morgan, as the writer personnally knows, was the hero of that 1916 crib-tunnel disaster and at the behest of city officials. For this, he has been insulted and harassed, for more than a year, almost beyond endurance as the result of the opposition led by Mayo Fessler, executive secretary of the Citizens' League. While we are thanking our very efficient city manager for his sensible and correct decision we must not overlook the most commendable action of the Appellate court, Judges John J. Sullivan, Manuel Levine and Willis Vickery, and particularly the latter's comment in handing down the court's very proper decision to grant the mandamus.

POLITICAL OUTLOOK IN OHIO.

In reply to the letter sent him, several weeks ago, by our Laymen's League of Cuyahoga County, Roy S. Rector, pres., Gov. Myers Y. Cooper has written Mr. Louis Williams, secretary of the league, that there are no openings at this time in the State Board of Clemency and the Industrial Commission which he could fill by the appointment of an Afro-American. He does not say that he would do this if there were, and does not indicate that there is an opening in any other state board or commission; nor does he explain why no member of the race has been given an outstanding position in any department of his administration during the past year and a half. He does, however, refer to the placing of one Howard Greer of Cincinnati in a minor position "in connection with the Industrial Commission" and claims to "have appointed a parole officer to aid, in connection with the colored prisoners, Dr. E. W. B. Curry." Both of these are insignificant "jim-crow" positions. The Governor might have added that his messenger also is a member of the race. What we have said on more than one occasion in the past we repeat, Gov. Myers Y. Cooper can write and say some very nice things to the thousands of Afro-American Republicans in the state of Ohio, but to date he has failed utterly to measure up, in the matter of appointments, to his nice talk to our people. We would suggest to the more or less distinguished Cincinnatian the importance of doing this very thing before election, this fall, because the outlook for Republican success, owing to the most unfortunate economic condition alone, is anything but encouraging, especially since he and others on the ticket are on the defensive and will not have the benefit, this year, of the assistance of the exceptionally large vote brot out by the Republican presidential candidate, Herbert Hoover, a year ago last fall, when the governor was swept into office by it after having been badly defeated for the same position, two years previous. The few insignificant jobs he has given to Afro-Americans will not arouse any enthusiasm in his behalf among our class of people, this fall, when he will need every vote in the Republican party of the state of Ohio, and then some, we fear. The Laymen's League of Cuyahoga County in its letter to the Governor, under date of May 22, 1930, but voiced the desire of the great mass of our voters of this state when it asked him for the appointments of a few Afro-Americans to "outstanding positions" in his administration of the state's affairs. His continued refusal to grant so reasonable a request and one, too, that he virtually promised in his many talks to our voters, last fall a year ago, will only serve to make his defeat certain in November next.

OKLAHOMA POLITICAL HOKUM.

Representative U. S. Stone, (Repub.) of Oklahoma, has introduced a resolution in the lower house of the Congress "to create a Mob Law Commission to investigate and study the lynching of citizens by mobs, or otherwise, in order that a proper law may be enacted." Political hokum and a little political "gallery-playing" for the edification of his constituents, and also for Democrats in his Congressional district (and the state of Oklahoma) which is nominally Democratic. Stone's political hokum, his resolution, has been introduced primarily for the purpose of forestalling, if possible, the introduction or passage of an anti-lynching bill like Representative Dyer's, which is based upon our Ohio Mob Violence Act or Anti-Lynching law. Stone expects his resolution, for different reasons, to commend him particularly to the Democrats of his district whom he wishes to use to a greater or less extent when he stands for re-election. His "explanation" as to why the introduction of his resolution is so thin it falls far short of explaining, even in a small way. He says that the passage of his resolution creating a mob law commission is the only way of "suggesting legislation that would meet the approval of the administration." Ridiculous! As a matter of fact, Stone who was a candidate for governor of Oklahoma in 1918, ran for the U. S. Senate in 1922, and was elected to Congress in 1928, as we have already said, is but trying to "pave the way" for his canvass for re-election to the U. S. House of Representatives.

CURRY DIES SUDDENLY.

Educator, Minister and Politician—Active in the Fulton School Fight of Several Years Ago On the Wrong Side—A Cooper Appointee.

Springfield, O.—Eleven years ago E. W. B. Curry, age 59, born at Delaware, O., came to this city from Urbana where he conducted what he named The Curry Normal and Industrial Institute, and edited "The Informer," a monthly publication which did not appear regularly. About ten years ago, he was elected pastor of Second Baptist church here, which position he resigned the early part of this year, after several years' pressure for his resignation, the direct result of his siding with the Ku Klux Klan element of this community in its effort to establish separate schools for our people of Springfield. Thruout his pastorate of the church here, he was president of the so-called "institute" at Urbana, and was "supply pastor" of Second Baptist church at Columbus. About a year ago, Gov. Myers Y. Cooper had him appointed as the head of a "jim-crow" bureau in the probation and parole department of the state's service because Curry was about the only Afro-American of any prominence in the state of Ohio that the Governor could secure to assist him in his campaign for election, a year ago last fall. Curry as a politician was an "in and outer," supporting Democratic or Republican nominee at will, during the past quarter of a century. He died suddenly at 3:30 A. M., last week Thursday, at his home here, 709 S. Wittenberg Ave. He was apparently in the best of health when he retired the night before after having driven his family in a newly purchased automobile to Urbana and back here. Surviving him are: the widow, a son and daughter, all of this city; and two sisters who reside in Columbus.

Burn DePriest in Effigy.

Birmingham, Ala.—Oscar De Priest, our only congressman (from Illinois) was burned in effigy by 1,000 Ku Klux Klan in regalia in the "Negro" section of North Birmingham, last week Thursday night. Tom Johnson, Communist organizer, also was burned in effigy. De Priest is scheduled to address a state gathering of our people here, July 17. He has been denied use of the city auditorium.

OHIO'S MOB VIOLENCE ACT

OR ANTI-LYNCHING LAW LEADS THE COUNTRY IN EFFECTIVE LEGISLATION

Against the Mob and Lynch-Murder—Three Years' Work of a Member of the Race—Also His Ohio Civil Rights Law.

Our mob violence or anti-lynching bill was introduced in the Ohio legislature in 1894 and re-introduced in 1896. It took the Hon. Harry C. Smith, editor of The Gazette, just three years to secure its enactment into law. The Ohio Supreme Court has several times upheld the constitutionality of the law and it has been very effective. Illinois, Pennsylvania and New Jersey have followed Ohio's lead and enacted mob violence or anti-lynching laws which are copies of our Ohio law. Several other northern states and at least one border state (Kentucky) have also enacted anti-lynching laws, in recent years, like Pennsylvania and New Jersey. The Ohio law follows:

MOBS.

Section
6278. "Mob" and "lynching" defined.
6279. "Serious injury" defined.
6280. Damages in case of assault.
6281. Damages in case of lynching.
6282. Damages recoverable by legal representative of victim of lynching
6283. Person suffering death or injury by mob trying to lynch another.
6284. Limitations of action.
6285. Order to include recovery and costs in tax levy.
6286. Guardian's custody, etc., fees.
6287. County's right of action against member of mob
6288. County's right of action against another county.
6289. Non-relief from prosecution.

Section 6278. A collection of people assembled for an unlawful purpose and intending to do damage or injury to any one, or pretending to exercise correctional power over other persons by violence and without authority of law, shall be deemed a "mob" for the purpose of this chapter. An act of violence by a mob upon the body of any person shall constitute a "lynching" within the meaning of this chapter. (93 v. 161 2.)

Section 6279. The term "serious injury," for the purpose of this chapter, shall include such inquiry as permanently or temporarily disables the person receiving it from earning a livelihood by manual labor. (93 v. 161 3.)

Section 6280. A person taken from officers of justice by a mob and assaulted with whips, clubs, missiles or in any other manner, may recover, as hereafter provided, a sum not to exceed one thousand dollars as damages from the county in which the assault is made. (93 v. 161 4.)

Section 6281. A person assaulted and lynched by a mob may recover, from the county in which such assault is made a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars; or, if the injury received therefrom is serious, a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars; or, if such injury result in permanent disability, to earn a livelihood by manual labor, a sum not to exceed five thousand dollars. (93 v. 12 5.)

Section 6282. The legal representative of a person dying from injuries received from lynching by a mob, may recover of the county in which such injury occurred, a sum not to exceed five thousand dollars damages for such unlawful killing. Such sum shall be applied to the maintenance of the family and education of the minor children of such person so lynched, if any survive him, until such children are of legal age, and then be distributed to the survivors, share and share alike, the widow receiving an amount equal to a child's share. If there be no widow or minor children surviving such decedent, such sum shall be distributed among the next of kin according to the laws of the distribution of the personality of an intestate. Such sum so recovered shall not be a part of the estate of such person so lynched, nor be subject to any of his liabilities. (93 v. 162 6.)

Section 6283. A person suffering death or injury from a mob attempting to lynch another person shall come within the provisions of this chapter. He or his legal representatives shall have a like right of action as one purposely injured or killed by such a mob. (93 v. 162 6.)

Section 6284. Action for the recoveries provided for in this chapter must be commenced, within two years from the date of such lynching, in any court having original jurisdiction of an action for damages for malicious assault. (93 v. 162 7.)

Section 6285. An order to the commissioners of a county, against which such recovery is had, to include it with the costs of action, in the next succeeding tax levy for such county, shall be a part of the judgment in every such case. (93 v. 162 8.)

Section 6286. If the decedent so lynched has minor children surviving him, the fund shall be turned over to a regularly appointed guardian. Such guardian shall administer such fund under the direction of the probate judge, allowing not more than five hundred dollars for counsel fees in the action for such recovery. (93 v. 162 9.)

Section 6287. The county, in which a lynching occurs, may recover the amount of a judgment and costs against it in favor of the legal representatives of a person killed or seriously injured by a mob from any of the persons composing such mob. A person present, with hostile intent, at such lynching shall be deemed a member of the mob and be liable to such action. (93 v. 162 10.)

Section 6288. If a mob carries a prisoner into another county, or comes from another county to commit violence on a prisoner brought from such county for safekeeping, the county in which the lynching is committed may recover the amount of the judgment and costs from the county from which the mob came, unless there was contributory negligence on the part of officials of such county in failing to protect such prisoner or dispurse such mob. (93 v. 163 11.)

Section 6289. This chapter shall not relieve a person concerned in such lynching from prosecution for homicide or assault for engaging therein. (93 v. 163 12.)

OUR OHIO CIVIL RIGHTS LAW

Upon the request of many readers of The Gazette we print below the text of the Hon. Harry C. Smith's Ohio Civil Rights law which the editor had enacted while a member of the 71st General Assembly, in 1894:

The General Code of Ohio:

Sec. 12940. Whoever, being the proprietor or his employee, keeper or manager of an inn, restaurant, eating house, barber-shop, public conveyance by land or water, theater or other place of public accommodation and amusement, denies to a citizen, except for reasons applicable alike to all citizens and regardless of race or color, the full enjoyment of the accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges thereof, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days, or both.

Sec. 12941. Whoever violates the next preceding section shall also pay not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundreds dollars to the person aggrieved thereby to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county where such offense was committed.

This law has repeatedly been held constitutional and good law by the Ohio Supreme court. The trouble is our people will not use it as often as they should, but expect it to do for them what they should and must do for themselves, under it, in the courts.

HERE'S AN OPPORTUNITY!

"The Old Reliable" Gazette desires an active agent and correspondent in every city and town in Ohio and neighboring states having a number of Afro-American residents. Only a little time on Fridays or Saturdays is required to make some money.

We are especially desirous of hearing from persons in the following named cities: Springfield, Columbus, Toledo, Steubenville, Zanesville, Wilmington, Xenia, Washington C. H., Lancaster, Piqua, Lima, O., and other places, particularly in Ohio, where we have none.

Write to the editor of The Gazette, 226 West Superior Ave., Cleveland, O., and terms will be sent promptly. Our readers will oblige us greatly by sending the addresses of persons in the cities named, and others in the state to whom we can write relative to the matter.

Fort Wagner Reunion.

Boston, Mass.—All living veterans of our Massachusetts regiments in the war of '61 to '65 are requested to send their addresses to Secretary W. M. Trotter, 39 Court St., Boston, or anyone who knows of any surviving veteran, for the celebration, July 18, of the 67th anniversary of the battle of Fort Wagner. Reunion will be held in Faneuil hall, "the cradle of Liberty."

Reports Dominican Rebels Routed.

Santo Domingo, R. D.—Rebel forces under Gen. Cipriano Densomi, which were active in the vicinity of the town of Moco, apparently have dispersed. Gen. Rafael Leonidas Trujillo, president-elect of Santo Domingo, reported, Sunday.

Maschke may take a beating.—The News.

Add to the foregoing symposium, Councilman Payne's fight on the Republican organization's candidates for committeemen in ward 11, to which reference is made elsewhere by "The Rounder", and it will not take anyone long to realize what is going to happen to "The Blossom Triplets", next year in the fall-time. The fact that Councilman Clayborne George is to be credited with stopping Bundy from keeping all three of the "triplets" from conferring with Mr. Maschke, Sunday morning week, as he (Maschke) requested, is a thing in his favor which if enlarged upon by our councilman from the fourth district may eventually save his bacon", next year.

PRESSES FLEMING PLEA

His Counsel Files Statement With U. S. Supreme Court—Miller's Failure Cited.

Washington, D. C.—Atty. Alex H. Martin, of Cleveland, O., counsel for former Councilman Thomas W. Fleming, also of Cleveland, last week, filed in the U. S. supreme court here a statement to show that the court has the power to consider Fleming's appeal from conviction of bribery. The statement asserted the failure of County Prosecutor Miller to charge acceptance of a check instead of "money," made faulty the indictment on which Fleming was convicted and deprived him of his right to be informed of the charge against him. A section of the Ohio general code was quoted to sustain the argument. Fleming was sentenced to two years and nine months in the Ohio penitentiary following "conviction" of accepting a $200 bribe from the late Walter Oehme, Cleveland, Ohio, policeman, whom he had helped materially, financially, on several occasions. The former councilman still stoutly maintains his innocence of the charge.

HANGS ON TO TUT'S KIN.

Berlin Refuses to Return Bust of His Mother-in-Law to Egypt—Different if She Were Alive.

Berlin, Germany.—King Tut's mother-in-law will remain in Berlin after all. It appears from a letter of the Prussian minister of education to the director general of the state museum that negotiations for the return of the Nefretiti bust to Egypt have broken down. The minister expresses satisfaction that the director general asked him to "refuse permission for exchange" of the bust for other works of art although such a trade would mean enrichment of the museum. "Such enrichment," the letter adds, "must not be purchased at the price of losing a work like the Nefretiti which is of such a fascinatingly modern appeal."

DISTINGUISHED MARKSMAN!

Washington, D. C.—The secretary of war has designated Sergt. Scott Bradford, headquarters company, 24th Inf., Fort Benning, Ga., a distinguished marksman and has ordered that a distinguished marksman's badge be issued to him. Sergt. Bradford is the only enlisted man of the 24th Infantry who is authorized to wear the badge and is the first 24th Inf. soldier to have this distinction since 1916. He was our only soldier to become a shooting member of the U. S. Inf. team of 1929, which won the national rifle team match in competition against 107 other teams representing the regular army, marine corps, coast guard, national guard, the R. O. T. C., the C. M. T. C., and various civilian organizations.

County Prosecutor Miller on Wednesday filed with the U. S. supreme court, at Washington, D. C., renewal of his motion to dismiss the appeal sought by former Councilman Thomas W. Some of them are: Carpenter foreman, physical instructor, watchman, record clerk at the City Hospital, bricklayer helper, engineering aid, watermeter reader, electric switchboard operator, water permit inspector, information clerk, tree-trimmer, gardener, school-garden helper, principal clerk, chemical house attendant, garbage plant repair foreman, etc.

No; Cleveland should not have a "jim-crow Y," and more than that, is not going to have one, either. This answers a question. Any of our young men, "those living in the city and those coming to the city," who wish "a place with wholesome environment (in which) to stay" and cannot be satisfied with one other than in a "jim-crow Y," can pass on to "Columbus and even smaller cities" burdened with such a pest. That kind of a "jim-crow Negro" is not needed or wanted in Cleveland. "Pittsburgh has no colored teachers in its public schools. Yet Pittsburgh has a colored Y. M. C. A." That explains why Pittsburgh has no colored teachers in its public schools. "Cleveland has many colored teachers (over one hundred) in its public schools" because it has steadily refused to permit the establishment of a "jim-crow Y," the entering wedge to separate schools and much other vitally harmful segregation in every community where one is tolerated. The Cedar Boys' "Y" was not "established as a substitute" for a "jim-crow Y," but was started to accommodate both boys and adults of all classes and races eligible to admission. Those persons who are "bleeding at the heart" for a "jim-crow Y" should get together and direct their efforts toward seeing "that proper admission is made to the E. 22d branch" (Cleveland Y. M. C. A. headquarters), or go on back "down home" where they are surfeited with segregation and color lines of all kinds.

OBITUARY.

Herbert S. Chauncey, age 43, born at Eastman, Ga. and educated at Talledega (Ala.) college, who came to Cleveland about twelve years ago, died Sunday morning at Mt. Sinai Hospital where he had been under treatment for about two weeks. Mr. Chauncey had been ailing for many months. He was a member of the City Plan Commission, president of the Empire Savings & Loan Co., the Crusaders Mutual Ins. Co., the People's Realty Co. and the Crusaders' Pub. Co.; an official of the Fraternal Bond & Investment Co., and the Murrell Printing Co., all business enterprises he was endeavoring to develop or assist in developing. If this did not cause his death, it surely hastened it. He was a U. S. railway mail service employee before coming to Cleveland and located here to study law at Baldwin-Wallace college. A widow and a five months' old girl-baby survive him. The funeral, Wednesday afternoon, was from Mt. Zion Cong. church.

Judge Wm. C. Hueston of Gary, Ind., attorney for the Elks', was in the city, last week Friday and Saturday, en route to Washington, D. C., to take the $4,500 a year position in the office of the solicitor for the Post Office department to which he was recently appointed by Postmaster General Walter F. Brown of Toledo.

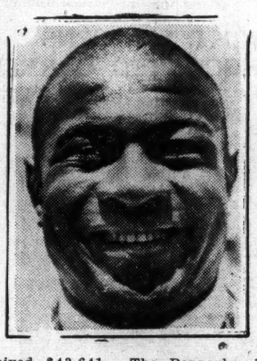
"Gorilla" Wins As Usual.

"Gorilla" Jones of Akron gave Vincent Forgoine, the gamey Italian pug from Philadelphia, a terriffc lacing in all of the ten rounds at Taylor bowl, Wednesday evening, tho he let up on his man a little in the ninth. Three thousand witnessed the fight.

Forgoine was not in Jones' class. The latter recently moved into the middleweight class, where he has been fighting with the same success that caused him to be rated the third best welterweight in the world at the start of the present season.

Godfrey Fouled Carnera.

Philadelphia, Pa.—The first two rounds were won by Godfrey, says Referee Tommy Reilly. The third and fourth round belonged to Carnera who was leading in the fifth round when twice fouled by Godfrey and declared the victor as a result. Carnera, who weighted twelve pounds heavier than Godfrey, received $43,641. The Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission suspended and penalized Godfrey half of the $10,000 purse he was to receive and revoked his license. Carnera was also suspended. All at the ring freely admitted Godfrey had the ability and experience to win, and seem unwilling to explain the fiasco. Godfrey should have won and easily was the consensus of opinion.



CRIB HERO IS UPHELD

City Ordered to Pay Garrett A. Morgan the $2,000 the City Council Voted Him, Long Ago.

Garrett A. Morgan, the real hero of the 1916 crib disaster, who won $2,000 as compensation for his rescue services at the crib tunnel from the City Council only to lose in attempts to collect it in Common Pleas Court, was granted a mandamus writ, last week, compelling payment of the $2,000, in the Court of Appeals. Assistant City Law Director Walter S. Booth announced that he would ask the Ohio Supreme Court for a reversal. Maybe he will; and then, maybe he won't. Holding that Morgan's services were "not only laudable but heroic" and that he was acting on the direct request of city officials when he went into the tunnel and brought out the bodies of several victims who had died in the explosion, Appellate Judge Willis Vickery ordered Finance Director Stephen G. Rusk to issue a voucher to Morgan for the $2,000, adding that the city's law department had no right to hold up the matter as it has for many months. Morgan has fought for compensation before the City Council for several years. His latest effort was successful after he had suffered a heart attack which was attributed to injuries to his health incurred at the disaster.

BILL, THE BUS DRIVER SAYS

"It's safe to wait till others pass,
There ain't no doubt about it.
Tell that rule to a drivin' fool;
Don't whisper it, but shout it."

(By MARCUS A. DOW.)

A joint is a place where two streets join, intersect or cross and are mostly gamblin' joints where reckless drivin' fools risk their lives.

A laundry delivery bus was bowlin' merrily along a street in Chicago about a year ago when I was there spendin' a vacation and heap plenty dough, and the driver had the right-of-way. That is, he thought he had the right-of-way (right-of-way stuff is mostly the bunk) at this particular joint with houses built right up to the sidewalk line on all four corners, but a five-ton coal truck on the side street quickly changed his right-of-way theory.

Shirts and nighties were scattered half a block in each direction and the laundry driver was taken to a hospital where they built plaster casts around his legs to hold them together. He suffered nothin' worse than a double splintered fracture of both legs that crippled him for keeps, and that's nothin' to give three rousin' cheers about.

When a railway engineer runs a locomotive in a yard where there are no block signals he has a rule, "Be prepared to stop within your range of vision." A simple rule and a good one for drivin' fools to learn. If the distance from a point just in front of your car to a buildin' on a corner is 14 feet, that's your range of vision. Then you should be prepared to stop in 14 feet.

Dependin' too much on the other guy and poor judgment as to what is a safe speed are often causes of collisions at joints. You think 20 m.p.h. is a safe speed, but then you are going 30 feet per second. Multiply your speedometer speed by one and a half and you get the number of feet you travel per second. See if you can stop in two seconds! And see how far you go before you stop. Also before a biff in the neck leaves your friends weepin' and sayin' "He was good guy, but so careless."

Slow down as you approach intersections because they're dangerous gamblin' joints where human lives are lost on the turn of a set of wheels if luck goes against you.

Poor Highways Found to Be Rather Expensive

Based on an annual mileage of 11,000, this year's motoring will cost the car owner who drives on poor roads $226.60 more than the expenditures of motorists who drive the same distance on high-type roads, according to the touring department of the Detroit Automobile club.

This wide difference in the cost of motoring is calculated from figures furnished the motor club by the highway education board. The board based its findings on the cost of operating an automobile of the average size.

"It costs an average of $.0206 per mile more to drive a car on a bad road than on a good highway," says a motor club statement. "While this sum may seem negligible, one year of driving 11,000 miles on poor roads will result in the additional cost already mentioned. It is a fact that the approximate tax upon each car owner for a system of adequate highways is, with respect to the country at large, in the neighborhood of one-tenth of the additional cost of driving over bad roads for one year.

"In approving any good roads programs motorists are therefore approving an investment that will annually bring them dividends 10 times the size of their original investment. It would be extremely difficult to conceive a manner in which money could be invested more profitably."

Discarded Auto Axle Is Made Into Handy Crane

In a small garage, where I had some work done on my car, a simple type of swinging crane was used for lifting motors to the workbench. The crane consisted of a front auto axle, one end of which was pivoted to the wall, and the other end braced by means of an overhead turnbuckle rod to permit adjustment. A specially made trolley, the construction of which is clearly indicated, was installed to ride on the axle, all the ridges being, of course, filed away. The pulley arrangement comprises two small rollers and two side plates, the latter being bolted together at three points, which makes it impossible for the trolley to come off the track. The block and tackle are hooked to the lowest bolt of the trolley.—Charles H. Willey, West Concord, N. H., in the Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Troubles of Automobiles Show Great Variations

A point seldom considered in the business of servicing automobiles is that the same kind of trouble is not equally as serious for all makes. That a friend is inconvenienced by some thing that goes wrong with his car is no reason why another one need take the same sort of trouble so seriously.

This is neatly illustrated in the case of one make of car which will not start if an intake valve sticks open. Most other cars can be started despite such trouble.

If a rear axle breaks with rear ends of a certain type the machine has to be jacked up and towed in as a wreck. With another type the wheels are free to turn despite the axle trouble, so that ordinary towing is sufficient.

Even a broken shock absorber on the earlier models of a recently introduced car interfere with steering, whereas on the average car no serious difficulties would be met.

AUTOMOBILE HINTS

When the steering suddenly becomes stiff try lubricating the king pin bushings and inflating the tires. It usually works.

A pawnshop lending money on automobiles, trucks and tractors has been established in Prague, Czechoslovakia.

Most automobile accidents are caused by drivers who have caused them before—just as most crimes are caused by those who have violated the law before.

* * *

Your tires will last longer if you switch the rear ones to the front and vice versa every few thousand miles. As the rear tires get most of the wear, this evens things up.

* * *

If you have one of the new cars with quick acceleration and high speed, remember that you may have to decelerate rapidly, and this takes equal, efficient brakes. Have them inspected.

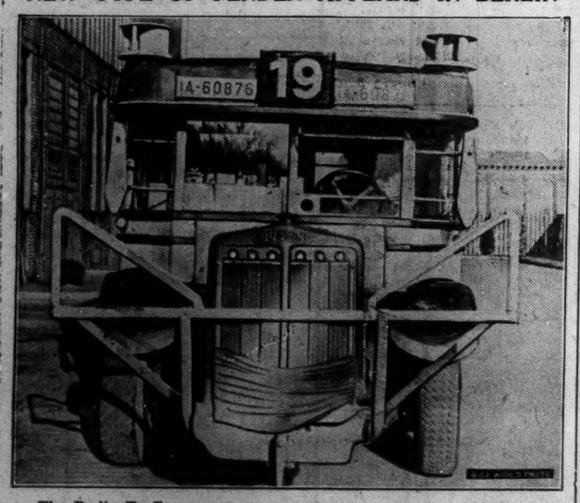
The president of a large automobile firm says a machine for each member of the family is the thing. This seems to exhaust all the immediate possibilities, and we guess the next thing will have to be a guest car.

NEW TYPE OF FENDER APPEARS IN BERLIN



The Berlin Traffic company is at present experimenting with this new type of fender which is here shown on a Berlin bus. The new fenders are expected to prove a great help and guide to drivers in enabling them to judge their distance in narrow lanes of cars and in driving in small quarters.

BEACH BELLES IN PEASANT PRINT WEAR CLEVER KID-STRAP CLOGS

BEACH belles are enjoying a new thrill this season—costumes which reflect the romance and the color glory of peasant dress.

Not only are the picturesque-minded intrigued by the peasant prints which are "the latest" for beach costumes, but their quaint styling brings into the picture a native charm which is most fascinating and realistic.

It seems that fashionists like artist painters are taking delight in captioning their creations with characteristic titles. Thus Schiaparelli renown as a stylist is outstanding selects "The Village" as an appropriate name for the charming little peasant frock with its contrasting blouse and skirt as shown in the picture together with a matching wrap. For this costume-beautiful the designer employs one of the new peasant prints especially woven for beach, also hostess pajama ensembles. With all its artistic features, this three-piece is thoroughly practical, the skirt being split up one side also made removable to allow sun bathing. The cape is so styled that at will it may be made to serve as a beach mat.

The same is true of the other costume in the illustration—unsnap the red-lined cape and you have a useful-as-well-as-ornamental beach rug. The material for this outfit is printed in red, white and blue.

It's an ever-so-clever device, this drop-your-skirt suit which is so popular this season among beach fans. One of the newest models is called the typhoon skirt, because owing to it's circular cut its six-yard hemline swishes and swirls about the ankles like mad as milady capers along the sandy stretch. This gay garment, for it is made of awning striped duck in bizarre colorings which gleam and flash at every turn, is convertible into a beach mat, or a cape. These colorful beach fantasies pose over the trimmest, neatest of little fan-tucked trouser costumes.

Of course, to complete the vivacious and winsome picture, milady must add beach clogs, just such as are worn with the gay costumes pictured, having kid straps of bright color and ornamental design. These kid-strapped clogs mark an innovation in beach footwear, and to put it mildly they are "the rage" among those summering amid scenes nautical.

SUITS OF LIGHTWEIGHT WOOLENS LEADING A CHECKERED CAREER

CHECKS, please! To this insistent call of fashion, style-wise women are responding with enthusiasm, especially when it comes to their tailleurs of novelty woolens.

Wherefore many of the smartest suits of which the model in the picture is one, are leading a checkered career. This nobby tailored jacket and skirt does not hesitate to "fly the colors," too, for its checks are in red and white. The jacket is worn over a white jumper which tucks neatly inside the pleated skirt as the majority of blouses do this season.

This is indeed proving a "suit season." Not for years has there been such a widespread demand for jacket and skirt tailleurs to be worn with the separate blouse. The fact that the woolens and silks employed for these suits are so gaily colorful and of such an infinite variety of weaves adds to their interest.

Just now the thing that counts most for chic, is the hat (usually a beret) made of the identical tweed or novelty cloth of the suit. This fashion was at first thought to be only an early spring idea, but the vogue is becoming increasingly popular for travel and town wear. Not infrequently shoes and handbag of the same material complement the suit and its hat.

It's ever so ultra to wear white accessories with one's suit this season, especially if it be of a black and white novelty weave. This movement on the part of Parisian fashionists leads to the all-white cheapeau, either felt, straw, crochet or of belting ribbon, topping a neckpiece of white flat fur, white kid shoes (perhaps piped with black) also pull-on gloves of white washable chamois. With the navy or black suit these accessory items in white are likewise very flattering and very fashionable.

HON. CHESTER C. BOLTON.

U. S. House of Representatives.
Washington, D. C., June 3, '30.
Hon. Harry C. Smith,
Editor, Gazette, Cleveland, O.

Dear Mr. Smith:—From the item, relative to the appointment of M. A. Campagna as superintendent of specialized employment service for veterans, recently established in Cleveland, which appeared on the front page of your issue of May 31st, I can only assume that you are not aware of the facts in the case. Consequently, I am writing to advise you that Mr. Campagna is a World War Veteran who honorably and actively served his country during that struggle, and you may be interested to know that so far as I was concerned there was no thought of recommending other than a World War veteran. I am sure you would not intentionally give your readers the wrong impression and that is what prompts me to write you in this manner. If you desire the service record of Mr. Campagna I will be pleased to see that you receive it.

Very truly yours,
Chester C. Bolton.

Congressman Bolton's Mistake.
June 5, 1930.
Hon. Chester C. Bolton,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:—Your letter of June 3, '30, just received, making clear the fact that you have not read carefully the publication in my paper of May 31, '30, to which your letter refers. That you may do so I am enclosing the article referred to being careful to underscore the sentences you apparently have overlooked. In your letter to me, you write:

"You may be interested to know that so far as I was concerned there was no thought of recommending other than a World War veteran."

There was positively nothing in the article in question that gave any other impression than is carried in the foregoing. Indeed, our publication but paralleled it; made the same impression and did not give our readers "the wrong impression." It is difficult for me to imagine how you could possibly so misunderstand our publication.

In conclusion I wish to again suggest that you see to it that Superintendent M. A. Campagna gives one or more of the Afro-American World War veterans places in the clerical force of the World War Veterans' local employment bureau.

Very truly yours,
Harry C. Smith,
Editor, Gazette.

The Article Referred To.

M. A. Campagna, for several years connected with the city employment agency, has been recommended by Congressman Bolton as superintendent of the World War Veterans' employment bureau to be opened here, this month, a dispatch from Washington states. The bureau will be part of the U. S. department of labor employment service. Bolton recommended the appointment of Miss Millie Millman as secretary of the agency, which is to serve ex-service men under a $100,000 appropriation made by Congress, a few weeks ago. What's the matter with recommending some of our war veterans for appointment in the agency or bureau, Mr. Bolton? They, too, are entitled to such recognition.—The Gazette of May 31, '30.

Mr. Bolton's Reply.

Washington, D. C., June 10, '30.
Hon. Harry C. Smith,
Editor Gazette, Cleveland, O.

Dear Mr. Smith:—Your letter of the 5th has arrived and in reply can only say that I thought you had in mind all World War veterans and not one particular group.

According to my information there is to be just a superintendent and one stenographer in the Veterans Employment office at Cleveland and of course those positions are already filled.

Very truly yours,
Chester C. Bolton.

Cleveland, O., June 17, 1930.
The Hon. Chester C. Bolton,
Member of Congress,
Washington, D. C.
Dear Mr. Bolton:

Your letter of June 10, just received (re-printed above) contains the following:

"I thought you had in mind all World war veterans and not one particular group."

That is exactly what made me suggest recognition for both groups, since you recommended M. A. Campagna for superintendent of the local World War Veteran Employment Bureau. I do not quite understand how you failed to recommend for secretary or stenographer of the agency the daughter or wife of some Afro-American World war veteran rather than giving both appointments to "one particular group."

And is Miss Millie Millman the daughter of a World war veteran?

Since both positions have been filled, there is nothing, I presume, that can be done at this time for the recognition of Afro-American World war veterans. But when there is a vacancy in either position or the number of employees of the agency is increased, I sincerely trust that you will see that the recognition referred to is given.

Very truly yours,
Harry C. Smith.

Hear! Hear! Boydston Post!

Washington, D. C., June 20, '30.
Hon. Harry C. Smith,
Editor Gazette, Cleveland, O.

Dear Mr. Smith:—I have yours of the 17th and can only say in reply that I have already indicated my desire to see the colored citizens of Cleveland represented in the personnel of the Veterans Employment Bureau, if more appointments are made.

Just what the outcome will be I do not know, but I can appreciate your interest and assure you of my desire to be entirely fair.

Very truly yours,
Chester C. Bolton.

THAT "SCROLL OF DISTINCTION"

Cleveland, June 3, 1930.
Mr. Chas. W. Greene,
129 Southern Ave.,
Springfield, O.
Dear Friend:—

I have been unable to learn of any regularly constituted citizens' committee, local or otherwise, purported to have J. Walter Wills, Sr., as chairman and Norman L. McGhee as secretary, that is alleged to have issued the "Scroll of Distinction" to Dr. Emmett J. Scott and Dr. John R. Hawkins of Washington, D. C., Anthony Overton and Robert S. Abbott of Chicago, Robert L. Vann of Pittsburgh and Alex. H. Martin of this city. As a matter of fact, persons alleged to have been members of said committee, have very readily assured me that they had no knowledge whatever, previous to May 31, 1930, of Wills' alleged citizens' committee authorizing him, or anyone else, to issue anything of the kind, beyond a "large folder invitation" sent to them prior to May 31, 1930, by Wills.

Therefore, the "Scroll of Distinction" given to the individuals named in the foregoing, is practically worthless because it represents the opinion, as far as Cleveland and Ohio are concerned, of but one or two persons. It certainly is a queer proceeding, to say the least, and takes what seems to me to be a very unfair advantage of Messrs. Hawkins, Scott, Abbott, Overton, Vann and possibly Martin. "The citizens of Ohio have" NOT "selected the persons named," or others, "from a growing line of leaders who have rendered and are rendering exceptional service in their respective fields, as worthy of marked commendation and honor." As an exhibition of "nerve," the issuance of those "Scrolls of Distinction" is about the most stupendous ever seen or heard of in this section of the country.

Trusting you are in good health and with best wishes always, I am sincerely,

Yours for the race,
Harry C. Smith.
